

Liz Wilson

Financial Counsellor, GambleAware Hunter New England

Liz Wilson is an experienced finance and counselling professional with a Bachelor of Business (Accounting Major), a Diploma in Financial Counselling, and a Master of Counselling nearing completion. She has worked as an Accountant for 20 years, developing extensive expertise in financial management, budgeting, compliance, and client advisory services.

Liz currently works in finance within a school setting, supporting the effective management of financial operations and resources. Over the past five years, she has also worked as a Financial Counsellor with GambleAware, assisting individuals and families experiencing gambling-related financial harm and hardship.