

Anthea Leslie

Project Officer, Education and Awareness, Office of Responsible Gambling

Anthea Leslie is a Senior Project Officer with the Office of Responsible Gambling, with extensive experience designing and delivering statewide initiatives to prevent and reduce gambling harm across NSW. She has led education and awareness programs for priority communities, co-developed harm minimisation resources, and partnered with health, community and industry stakeholders to build capability and improve outcomes.