

LawInform

THE LAW SOCIETY OF NSW

About the Facilitator

Manny Conditis

With over 33 years of experience, Manny is likely the only Solicitor Advocate in the Country who has appeared as advocate in 4 murder trials and who appears in the Court of Criminal Appeal and the High Court.

Manny is highly respected by his peers and the bench and has appeared in many high-profile cases, some of which are referred to under Landmark Cases.

Manny is also sought after by the media for commentary in news breaking legal stories and events including ABC Radio, Channels 7, 9, 10 and SBS. As an accredited Law Society Specialist in Criminal Law Manny recently sat on that committee which set and marked exam papers for lawyers aspiring to become specialists. Manny also regularly contributes to legal knowledge by lecturing at events such as the Brother and Sisters in Law annual conference. Manny has an enviable success rate in judge and jury trials.