

About our Presenter

Sue Tomat

Sue's work

Sue is the owner of GumLeafGreen. She helps clients in Australia and the Asia-Pacific region become more efficient and successful through excellent communication, particularly in written communication.

She has worked with people in a range of roles from senior executives to graduates in the private, public and not-for-profit sectors. Her work spans from creating board paper templates for ASX100 companies to helping graduates develop the skills they need to become job ready.

Background

Sue moved into communication consulting and training 18 years ago, establishing her own business 16 years ago. Before that, she worked for 12 years as a commercial lawyer in Australia (when she learned some unhelpful writing habits which she has now undone!).

Qualifications and award

Sue holds an honours degree in law from the Queensland University of Technology.

She received an achievement award from the Australia Day Council for the work she did for the Queensland Government.
