

Martin Gorrick, Mediator and Lecturer, University of Technology Sydney

Martin practiced at the Sydney Bar from 1989 to 2016, principally in property, equity, succession and 'elder' law.

Martin relinquished his practice in 2016 and is now a casual lecturer in Legal Ethics and Regulation of the Legal Profession in the Law Faculty of the University of Sydney and in the Foundations of Law course in the Law Faculty of the University of Technology, Sydney.

Martin is a qualified mediator and regularly conducts private and court appointed mediations, principally in the areas of succession and elder law.
